PREFACE.

THIS volume contains the orders of the Government of India on the Dress of the Army in India and is to be read in conjunction with Dress Regulations for the Army (made applicable to the British Services on the Indian establishment by India Army Order 448 of 1912), and the King's Regulations.

General or other Officers Commanding will be held responsible that no deviations from the authorized patterns in the uniform of officers, warrant officers and soldiers, nor mixed orders of dress, are permitted in their commands.

(This book is corrected up to 1st November 1927)

E. BURDON,

Secretary to the Government of India

DRESS REGULATIONS

(PROVISIONAL).

PART I.

CENTRAL INSTRUCTIONS AND ORDERS OF DRESS.

1. Commanding Officers are forbidden to introduce or to sanction any deviation from the scaled patterns of dress, clothing, equipment and badges. They will be responsible for replacing or restoring to the approved pattern any articles worn in their units which may be found not to be in conformity therewith.

2. They will however permit individual officers to continue to wear articles of dress already in their use which become obsolete by change of pattern in regulations. No permission to continue the wear of obsolete articles will extend beyond five years from the change of regulations, such articles may not be renewed, but must be replaced by the latest patterns.

3. The articles described in the following paragraphs are of universal application and will be worn by officers of all units, corps and departments. When obtaining uniform and equipment, officers should make sure, by personal comparison, if possible, that articles are being supplied according to scaled pattern.

4. No unauthorised ornament or emblem is to be worn in uniform, but special emblems may be carried on the headdress on anniversaries, provided authority has been obtained.

Units are authorised to wear the national flower or emblem in their head-dress on the days specified —

St. George's Day	English Units.
St. Andrew's Day	Scottish Units.
St. David's Day	Welsh Units.
St. Patrick's Day.	Irish Units.

These emblems may also be worn by English, Irish, Scottish and Welsh soldiers serving in other units.

All ranks when not on duty, are authorised to wear a poppy on the uniform headdress on 11th November being the anniversary of Armistice Day of the Great War.

5. Officers on leave are to be in possession of uniform for use if detailed for duty. Officers while in foreign countries are not to wear uniform, but having obtained the permission of His Majesty's representative which will only be granted when they are employed on duty, or attending court, or at State ceremonies to which they have been invited. Permission to wear uniform at foreign ceremonies is only to be granted from the War Office.

6. Regulation is not to be worn at formal dress balls, but there is no objection to a military uniform of obsolete pattern being worn on such occasions.

1. The power will be on the side of duty.

2. When reporting any irregularities or excesses that may have taken place under your jurisdiction, you must state the facts as they are, but will not state the names of the individuals.

3. When any difference exists between the Home and Indian laws, you must follow the law of the Home, and the law of the Indian must not be followed.

4. The law of the Home must be followed in all cases, and the law of the Indian must not be followed in any case.

5. The law of the Home must be followed in all cases, and the law of the Indian must not be followed in any case.

6. The law of the Home must be followed in all cases, and the law of the Indian must not be followed in any case.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS.

The batons forming part of the Field Marshal's badges will be in emerald and crimson velvet. General Officer's badges are worn in pairs, point of the sword to the front and edge of blade outwards or towards the arm. The sword is 2-inches long and the baton $\frac{1}{2}$ -inch shorter.

Officers having brevet, local, temporary, acting or honorary rank wear the badges of that rank.

The rank of Indian officers and of I M D and I A V C personnel ranking as such is shown by metal badges worn on the shoulder straps as under—

Risaldar Major and Subadar Major—Crown

Risaldar and Subadar—Two stars

Jemadar.—One star.

14. Badges.—No badges are allowed to be worn, except those authorised by these and the Dress Regulations for the Army. Civil insignia, claus and badges are not to be worn with military uniform.

Collar badges will be fixed with the centre of the badge 2 inches from the opening of the collar of the tunic or frock-coat. They may also be worn on the lapel of the mess jacket and above the step on the service dress jacket, where authorised. When worn on the former they will be placed three quarters of an inch below the medals.

15. Badges, Special.—Regimental badges, devices and other distinctions granted under special authority are to be strictly preserved. Badges are to be metal unless otherwise ordered. For detailed descriptions see Parts VI & VII.

16. Belts, Sword.—As described for the respective services. They will be worn as follows—

(1) British Service—Under the tunic or dress jacket by all mounted officers (except those of Highland and Scottish regiments—excluding Scottish Rifles) and by all officers of Rifle regiments (excluding Scottish Rifles), over the tunic or doublet by all other officers.

Over the frock-coat and under patrol jackets.

The web belt, described in Appendix I (b) will be worn by all officers who wear the sword belt under the tunic or patrol jacket, and with the frock-coat under the girdle or waist sash.

(2) Indian Army and Indian Medical Service—The web sword belt, described in Appendix I (b), will be worn under the tunic or patrol jacket and over the frock-coat or frock, drill khaki (under the sash or girdle) by all officers for whom it is the prescribed full dress belt. Infantry officers carrying colicots wear the web sword belt over the tunic and under the coat.

Other full dress sword-belts will be worn over the tunic, frock-coat or frock, drill, khaki.

The web sword belt will be worn under serge frocks by officers of all branches of the service. Slings will be fitted with studs and holes so that they can be removed from the belt. At balls and other entertainments when the sword is worn to be taken off officers who wear the belt over the tunic will wear the web sword belt and slings; other officers will wear the "Sam Browne".

17. Belts "Sam Browne"—The universal pattern, see Plate 1, brown (or black) leather, with one or two braces, pouch, frog and brown (or black) leather scabbard worn with service. The frog will only be worn when the sword is worn.

7. Uniform will be worn while on duty.

8. Officers attending as spectators on occasions when troops parade under arms will wear the same order of dress as the troops but will not wear orders, decorations and medals.

9. Where any differences exist between the Home and Indian Dress Regulations, the articles of uniform authorised by the latter are not to be worn by officers of the British Service after leaving the Indian establishment.

10. Details of full dress uniform have not been embodied in these regulations, but full dress of the patterns authorised for wear prior to August 1914 may be worn by officers who may be in possession of it, when not on duty with troops shoulder straps and in gold embroidery on the frock-coat. In regiments dressed in green, they will be bronze.

The crowns when laid on shoulder cords or shoulder straps are 1-inch broad and 1-inch in height ; the stars are 1-inch between opposite points.

The batons forming part of the Field Marshal's badges will be in embroidery and crimson velvet. General Officer's badges are worn in pairs, point of the sword to the front and edge of blade outwards or towards the arm. The sword is 2-inches long and the baton $\frac{1}{2}$ -inch shorter.

Officers having brevet, local, temporary, acting or honorary rank wear the badges of that rank.

The rank of Indian officers and of I. M. D. and I. A. V. C. personnel ranking as such is shown by metal badges worn on the shoulder straps as under—

Risaldar Major and Subadar Major—Crown

Risaldar and Subadar—Two stars

Jemadar—One star

11. Badges.—No badges are allowed to be worn, except those authorized by these and the Dress Regulations for the Army. Civil insignia, clasp and badges are not to be worn with military uniform.

Collar badges will be fixed with the centre of the badge 2 inches from the opening of the collar of the tunic or frock-coat. They may also be worn on the lapel of the mess jacket and above the step on the service dress jacket, where authorized. When worn on the former they will be placed three quarters of an inch below the medals.

15. Badges, special. Regimental badges, devices and other distinctions granted under special authority are to be strictly preserved. Badges are to be metal unless otherwise ordered. For detailed descriptions see Parts VI & VII.

16. Belts and sword.—As described for the respective services. They will be worn as follows—

"(1) British Service.—Under the tunic or dress jacket by all mounted officers (except those of Highland and Scottish regiments—including Scottish Rifles) and by all officers of Rifle regiments (excluding Scottish Rifles), over the tunic or doublet by all other officers.

Over the frock-coat and under patrol jackets.

The web belt, described in Appendix 1 (b) will be worn by all officers who wear the sword belt under the tunic or patrol jacket, and with the frock-coat under the girdle or waist sash.

(2) Indian Army and Indian Medical Service.—The web sword belt, described in Appendix 1 (b) will be worn under the tunic or patrol jacket and over the frock-coat or frock, drill khaki (under the sash or girdle) by all officers for whom it is the prescribed full dress belt. Infantry officers carrying colours wear the web sword belt over the tunic and under the sash.

Other full dress sword-belts will be worn over the tunic, frock-coat or frock, drill, khaki.

The web sword belt will be worn under serge frocks by officers of all branches of the service. Straps will be fitted with studs and holes so that they can be removed from the belt. At balls and entertainments when the sword-belt is worn to be taken off, officers who wear the belt over the tunic will continue to wear sword-belt and sashes; other officers will remove them.

17. Belts "Sam Browne".—The universal pattern Sam Browne belt is of brown (or black) leather with one or two traces passing across the back. The pouch frog and frown (or black) leather saddle is worn with sword-belt. The frog will only be worn when the sword is worn.

On field service web equipment similar in pattern to that worn by the men, may be worn instead of the "Sam Browne" belt.

N B—Officers of Indian regiments whose mess dress is rifle-green may adopt the black "Sam Browne" belt, etc., with white metal fittings provided all officers are dressed alike.

Officer of Indian regiments whose mess dress is drab (also the 10th Baluch Regiment) may adopt the brown "Sam Browne" belt with white metal fittings, under similar conditions.

BOOTS.

18. (a) Full dress—mounted.—Except where otherwise specified, butcher boots will be worn. The height of the boot will vary according to the length of the leg. It should reach to about 4 inches from the top of the knee. The leg of the boot should be jacked sufficiently to prevent it from sinking. A spur rest is fixed 2 inches above the top edge of the heel to keep the spur horizontal.

(b) Full dress—dismounted and undress.—All officers will wear Wellington boots, except in Highland regiments when shoes will be worn with the kilt.

(c) Full dress—Levees and Courts.—Field-Marshal will wear jacked boots, other officers as in (b) above.

(d) Mess order.—As in (b) above.

(e) Service dress.—Field-marshal, general officers, substantive colonels, staff officers, officers of cavalry, Royal Artillery, Royal Army Veterinary Corps, Indian Army Service Corps, Military Farms Department and Army Remount Department will wear brown field boots. These boots have soft legs stiffened to a depth of 4 to 6 inches from the top, laced at the instep with 7 to 9 pairs of eyelet holes, at the option of the officer; plain toe-caps; horizontal counter in line with the third lace-hole from the bottom and $3\frac{1}{2}$ inches above the provision of the boot e boots with leggings

Dismounted officers will wear brown ankle boots with plain toe-caps. In Highland regiments brown shoes will be worn.

The new pattern brown field boot varies from the old pattern in the following respects:—

- (i) The counter is higher and horizontal, viz., in line with the third lace-hole from the bottom and $3\frac{1}{2}$ inches above the top of the heel.
- (ii) A plain toe-cap is added.
- (iii) The provision of a gusset, with strap and buckle at the top of the boot is optional.
- (iv) The number of lace-holes varies from 7 to 9 and is optional.
- (v) The provision of a spur rest is optional.

Black boots and leggings of the patterns described above may be worn by officers of certain Indian regiments whose mess dress is rifle green, also the 12th F. F. Regiment. All officers of a regiment must be dressed alike.

Officers in possession of boots, etc., of patterns different to those now authorised are permitted to wear them until requiring replacement (with the exception that canvas gaiters are prohibited), when they will provide themselves with the current patterns.

All officers must, however, be in possession by the 1st March 1926 of the boots and leggings now prescribed.

19. Buttons.—Buttons are of the following sizes:—

Large	35 to 40 lines.
Medium	30 to 34 lines
Small	24 to 20 lines.
Gorget	} 20 lines.
Vest

SERVICE DRESS (SERGE).

20. Breeches Bedford cord.—Staff officers, officers of mounted units, and mounted officers of dismounted units—drab coloured Bedford cord with drab coloured buckskin strappings, a small horn button about $2\frac{1}{2}$ inches from bottom of each leg at the back for leggings or field boot to be attached, to reach about 6 inches below the knee, fairly loose over hip and thigh with a good fullness at top half over the knee. Openings at bottom of legs about 6 inches long with eyelet-holes for laces on either side, the top and bottom eyelet-holes being about $\frac{1}{2}$ inch from top and bottom of opening, the other holes being equidistant, fly front, two cross pockets, buckle and strap at the back.

It is optional for button-holes and buttons to be substituted for eyelet-holes and laces, but all officers of a unit for whom these breeches are authorized must wear the same pattern. In the case of the I. A. S. C, breeches will be laced and not buttoned.

20A Breeches, Knickerbocker.—Officers of dismounted services, except those of Highland regiments who wear the kilt. Drab material to match the service dress jacket, cut fairly loose round the hips; continuations of same material about three inches deep which may at option be fastened with buttons and button-holes or with a strap and buckle. Any superfluous material at the bottom should be full on all round when seaming on the continuations. The fall over at the knee must not exceed four inches; fly fronts, the top button being on the inside of fly while the button-hole for same is just behind the button catch seam. Two side pockets; buckle and strap at back; waist lining of drab flannel.

SERVICE DRESS (DRILL).

21 Breeches, cord, khaki or khaki drill.—Cord khaki or khaki drill of Spinner's No. 1 shade of the pattern described in para. 20, with strappings of the same material as the breeches.

21A Breeches, knickerbockers, khaki drill.—Khaki drill of Spinner's No. 1 shade of the pattern described in para. 20-A.

Breeches, khaki, drill, (para. 21) may be worn with khaki drill uniform by officers of the Indian Army provided all officers of a unit are dressed alike.

Shorts may be worn at the option of regiments under the conditions laid down in para. 41.

Khaki Jodhpur breeches with ankle boots (or shoes) without girths may be worn by officers in barracks when not on parade with troops.

22. Cap-Comforter.—Brown silk, similar to the pattern for rank and file.

23. Cap, Field.—Regimental pattern, may be worn in camp, on service and at manœuvres. Its upkeep is optional.

24. Cap. Forage—Universal Pattern.—Worn with cover, see para. 26 by :—

- (a) General Officers, Colonels Commandant, Colonels on the Staff, and substantive Colonels
- (b) Indian Army Officers.

N B.—Substantive colonels in command of units of the Indian Army will wear the forage cap as worn by British officers of their unit.

Cloth, with three welts, $4\frac{1}{2}$ inches total depth, diameter across the top $10\frac{3}{8}$ inches for a cap fitting $21\frac{3}{4}$ inches in circumference, the top to be $\frac{1}{2}$ inch larger or smaller in diameter for every $\frac{1}{4}$ inch the cap may vary in size of head above or below the before-mentioned standard, e.g. a cap $22\frac{1}{4}$ inches in circumference, diameter across the top $10\frac{5}{8}$ inches; cap 21 inches in circumference, diameter 10 inches. The sides to be made in four pieces, and to be $2\frac{1}{2}$ inches deep between the welts, a cloth band $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches wide placed between the two lower welts.

The cap set up on a band of stiff leather, or other material, $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches deep, but not stiffened up in front

Chin-strap of black patent leather $\frac{3}{8}$ inch wide, buttoned on to two $\frac{1}{2}$ inch gilt buttons placed immediately behind the corners of the peak.

The peak to droop at an angle of 45 degrees and to be 2 inches deep in the middle when worn with embroidery, and $1\frac{1}{4}$ inches when plain.

Peaks will be embroidered as follows —

Field Marshals and General Officers.—Two rows of oak-leaf embroidery.

30. Gorget Patches.—Field-Marsbals, General officers, Colonels Commandant, Colonels on the Staff and Substantive Colonels will wear gorget patches as noted below on the collar of the serge frock, and service dress, serge, and khaki drill jackets.

The gorget patches will be $3\frac{1}{2}$ inches in length and $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches wide, triangular at the points and shaped to fit the collar above the step.

(a) For Field-M Marshals and General Officers.

(i) Except as stated below : Scarlet cloth.

Exceptions are :—

- (ii) Medical Services ; black velvet.
- (iii) Royal Army Ordnance Corps ; blue cloth.
- (iv) Army Veterinary Service : maroon cloth.
- (v) Chaplain General and chaplains with relative rank as Generals : purple cloth.

In each case the gorget patch will have a line of gold oak leaf embroidery down the centre and a small gorget button.

(b) For Colonels Commandant, Colonels on the Staff and Substantive Colonels.

(i) Except as stated below : scarlet cloth.

Exceptions are :—

- (ii) Medical Services, R.A.M.C., dull cherry cloth. I.M.S., black velvet.
- (iii) Royal Army Ordnance Corps . blue cloth.
- (iv) Army Veterinary Service : maroon cloth.
- (v) Chaplains with relative rank as colonels on the staff or substantive colonels : purple cloth.

In each case the gorget patch will have a line of silk gump of the colour of the cloth down the centre and a small gorget button.

A //—Substantive colonels serving with units of the Indian Army will not wear gorget patches.

31. Greatcoat, Universal.—Universal pattern of drab greatcoat for all officers except General Officers and Substantive Colonels.

Universal drab mixture cloth, milled and waterproofed, double breasted, to reach to the point of the knees, 18 to 20 inch slit at the back, with small saddle flap. Turn-down collar $2\frac{1}{2}$ inches deep, with lapel and step, fastening with one hook and eye. Four large buttons on each side, three to button and one under turn. Two bottom pockets with flap ; one inside breast pocket at each side ; sword slit at left side ; loose turn-back cuffs of single material $4\frac{1}{2}$ inches deep ; shoulder straps of the same material as the garment, fastened with small buttons.

The coat is lined with drab flannel.

The following is a description of the greatcoat worn by General Officers and substantive colonels :—

Great Coat.—Atholl grey milled cloth, double breasted, 2 cross pockets, pivot sleeves, 11 buttons on either side, 8 to 10 inches apart at the top and 4 to 6 inches at the bottom, lined with scarlet ratinet. Plain cloth shoulder straps fastened with a small button. Sword slit and flap at side. But there is no objection to generals and colonels continuing to wear the drab greatcoats if in their possession. On the occasions when full dress is worn and a greatcoat is necessary, it should be that prescribed for their rank, viz., Atholl grey.

Cape.—Of similar material to the greatcoat, of sufficient length to afford protection to the knees when mounted. Turned-down collar 3 inches in depth, unlined, fastened with two hooks and eyes at the collar and 5 buttons down the front. The cape is for wear as a separate garment.

32. Helmet, Khaki.—"Wolseley" pattern cork, made with six seams, bound with buff leather; projecting brim all round, 3 inches in front 4 inches at back, 2 inches at sides, ventilated at top with zinc button covered with khaki drill. side hooks. At top of helmet a collet riveted on to a collar $\frac{3}{4}$ inch wide to receive the button. Brown or black leather chinstrap $\frac{3}{4}$ inch wide. A plain khaki pagli.

British Officers serving with Indian units are permitted to wear a lungi in the place of a helmet with khaki dress, except infantry in full dress. All officers of a unit must be dressed alike.

Patches or flashes, hackles, etc., are permitted to be worn on the helmet by officers of the British Service and Indian Army provided that all officers of a regiment corps, etc., are dressed alike.

Such flashes, hackles, etc., when worn by officers of the British Service must be removed when leaving Indian limits.

33 Jacket Service Dress.—Universal pattern.—Khaki drill of Spinner's No. 1 shade, single-breasted, cut as a lounge coat with back seams, very loose at the chest and shoulders but fitted at the waist and cut straight fronted. Step collar, depth of opening about 3 inches, two cross-patch breast pockets, above, $6\frac{1}{2}$ inches wide and $7\frac{1}{2}$ inches deep to the top of the flap, box plait in centre $2\frac{1}{2}$ inches wide, three pointed flap $6\frac{1}{2}$ inches wide and $2\frac{1}{2}$ inches deep, two expanding pockets below the waist at the sides, $9\frac{1}{4}$ inches wide at the top and $10\frac{1}{2}$ inches at the bottom, 8 inches deep to the top of the pocket and fastened at the top with a small button, flap with button-hole to cover pocket $3\frac{1}{2}$ inches deep, $10\frac{1}{2}$ inches wide. The top of the pockets should be sewn down at the corners in such a manner that on service the pocket can be expanded at the top also, inside watch pocket with tap above for chain or strap. Four buttons at the bottom, all pointed, medium regulation button, badges of rank in metal.

Jacket service Dress (serge), should only be worn by officers off parade or when parading with troops wearing serge drab uniform. It is an optional garment for officers of the Indian Army and if worn must be of the same shade and pattern as that worn by British Service Officers.

Collar badges are worn on the collar above the step by officers of services for which collar badges are authorised, except by officers of and above the rank of substantive Colonels for whom gorget patches are authorised (see para. 30).

British and Indian officers of Indian cavalry, Indian Pack Artillery and Indian infantry may wear at their option a khaki frock on parade with their men of a similar pattern to that worn by the rank and file. All officers of a unit must be dressed alike.

34. Leggings.—With service dress serge and khaki drill mounted officers and other than those who wear the field boot (para. 18) will wear brown or black leather leggings of scaled pattern, fastening up the front with laces and six studs.

35. When attending military funerals or memorial services connected therewith, officers and warrant officers will wear a mourning band of black crape, $3\frac{1}{2}$ inches wide, round the left arm above the elbow. It will not be worn at levees or at Court, except when the Court is in mourning, nor will it be worn at ceremonies such as the unveiling of memorials and Armistice Day celebrations.

An officer or warrant officer in private mourning may, when in uniform, wear a mourning band as described above. A n. c. o. or man may similarly, whether in private mourning or at a military funeral, wear a mourning band of black material should he wish to do so.

36. Putties.—Woollen, to match the colour of the service dress serge or khaki drill. Coloured putties may be worn by Rifle regiments and regiments who wore coloured putties before the Great War.

37. Saddlery.—As laid down in the Equipment Regulations.

38. Sashes.—

39. Service Dress.—For the British Service means drill or serge, and when either kind is referred to specifically, the term "drill" or "serge" should be added.

For Indian troops the only authorised service dress is khaki drill.

40. Shirts.—With cloth mts^s dress—white linen stuff fronted. With hot weather dress—soft fronted. Drab flannel or khaki cotton shirts will always be worn with service dress serge or khaki drill. Khaki shirts may be worn without the jacket, in which case shoulder straps and badges of rank will be provided. The collar of the shirt may then be worn open without a tie.

41. Shorts.—For dismounted officers as an optional garment in lieu of breeches (paras. 20 & 21). Khaki drill as for rank and file. Khaki hose tops must be worn with shorts, except where otherwise sanctioned by A. H. Q.

42. Shoulder Chains.—Worn with full dress and in service dress when worn by the men. They are not to be worn on tunics or frock-coats.

Shoulder chains will only be worn by Indian cavalry (all ranks) as follows :—

(a) With the pre-war full dress kurta if worn.

(b) With the service dress kurta and universal khaki frock I. T. when worn as full dress. In the case of the frock the chains will be worn over the shoulder straps which will under no circumstances be removed.

43. Shoulder Cords or Shoulder Straps.—Are worn on tunics, jackets, frock coats, game frocks and great coats. Shall be of the same pattern spurs of scaled pattern will be worn; with butcher boots, steel chains and black strap; with black ankle boots, black straps and shield (no chains); with brown field and ankle boots, brown straps and shield (no chains); with Wellington boots, box spurs with plain rowels.

Spurs will be worn in full dress and service dress by all general officers, staff officers of mounted services, field officers and adjutants of all services, and officers permanently in command of companies of infantry.

They will also be worn in mess dress, undress, and at levees, when Wellington boots are worn, by the above mentioned officers.

They will not be worn on board ship when travelling, or by officers inspecting armaments or magazines.

The new pattern hunting spur, steel, is made of stainless steel. The maximum length of the neck of the spur is $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches and the minimum length 1 inch, the sides of the neck are flat.

45. Swords and Scabbards.—The pattern laid down for the arm of the service. Swords will be carried on parades and duties unless otherwise directed. They will not be worn on board ship, at mess, or at stables.

Swords will be carried on the saddle by mounted officers in all mounted "orders of dress" other than Review Order (Full Dress)

The scabbards of officers of dismounted units in Review Order (Full Dress) are to be hooked up by those who wear the waist belt over the tunic and carried in left hand by other officers.

The scabbard will be carried in the left hand by mounted officers when on dismounted duties.

46. Sword Knots.—Worn loose by mounted services in all orders of dress. Dismounted services wear the sword knot neatly coiled round the guard of the sword except with the "Sam Browne" belt, when it is worn loose.

47. Ties.—Black ties are worn with mess dress, except by officers of the Oxfordshire and Buckinghamshire Light Infantry who wear white ties. A
under

48. Trousers and Pantaloon.—For mounted officers trousers or over-1½ to 2 inches longer than ordinary trou-y down to the boot and fit closely above worn by all officers

Service dress trousers with ankle boots or shoes, will not be worn on parade or duty except at stables and on fatigue duties in barracks, or when employed in offices

Pantaloon should be cut loose in the thigh and tight at the knee. Ample length from the hip to the knee is essential so that the wearer can have the necessary freedom in mounting and dismounting. They should have buckskin strapping at the knee and, if made for hard wear, seat strapping also.

Pantaloon should be furnished with a waist strap and buckle and with cross pockets

49. Waterproof.—Waterproofed drab cotton twill with two removable linings, one of fleece and one of oilskin. It can be worn without the linings or with one or the other or with both, according to climate. It is double breasted, fastening with three bone buttons, reaching to the neck; it has two cross-pockets with flaps below the waist, a slit in the skirt, with saddle flap, fastening with two small bone buttons; it has removable shoulder strap, it is fitted with a belt of the same material, fastening with a buckle, and has three brass discs at the back. Metal badges of rank are worn on the shoulder straps. The waterproof coat is an optional garment and is not worn in any order of dress. Officers in possession of waterproofs of obsolete pattern may continue them in use until worn out; but all future provision must be of the above pattern.

50. Whistles.—There is no sealed pattern, but all the officers of a unit should carry the same pattern. They will be attached to a lanyard of the colour of the service dress and carried in the left breast pocket of the service dress jacket, in mounted services, when on duty with troops, in dismounted services when in marching drill order.

51. Officers are permitted to purchase such articles of clothing, necessities and materials suitable for their uniforms and equipment as may be available from clothing depots or arsenals or regimental stores.

The rules under which these issues can be made will be found in Clothing and Equipment Regulations.

DECORATIONS AND MEDALS.

52. Method of Wearing.—Worn on the left breast of the full-dress garment, over the sash in Highland and Scottish Regiments, and under the pouch belt when this is worn. They are to be worn in a horizontal line suspended from a single bar or buckle, which is not to be seen, or stitched to the garment, and placed midway between the first and second buttons from the bottom of the collar, in Hussar regiments immediately below the top bar of lace on the left breast of the tunic.

Medals are worn in the orders of the dates of the campaigns for which they have been conferred, the first obtained being placed farthest from the left shoulder.

The only British non-military medals allowed to be worn when in uniform are —

- (i) "The Albert Medal," "The Edward Medal," "The Board of Trade Medal, The Medal of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem"; and
- (ii) the medals of the Royal Humane Society, the "Stanhope Gold Medal" awarded by that body, and the medal of the Royal National Lifeboat Institution.

Not more than two of these medals may be worn for one act of gallantry, viz:—one official medal and, if awarded, either the Royal Humane Society's medal, the Stanhope Gold medal, or the Royal National Lifeboat Institutions medal. In no circumstances can medals awarded by private societies be permitted to be worn. As far as possible, this restriction also applies to medals awarded by foreign governments. Where a foreign government medal and a British medal are awarded for the same act of gallantry, the foreign medal may be worn only on occasions of ceremony where representatives of the country concerned are present.

When the decorations and medals cannot, on account of their number, be suspended from the bar so as to be fully seen, they are to overlap.

53. Miniature Decorations and Medals.—Worn with mess dress and with evening dress (plain clothes) as directed in paras. 55 and 58.

Miniature decorations will be of the same size as miniature medals. A Knight Grand Cross, Knight Grand Commanders, Knight Commander, Commander and Companion will wear the miniature of the companionship or membership of the order. When the miniatures of the order of the Bath or of St. Michael and St. George are worn by a Knight Grand Cross or by a Knight Commander the buckle will be omitted.

The miniatures of companionship or membership of an order will not be removed when in evening dress (plain clothes), the broad riband, star or badge is worn by a Knight Grand Cross, Knight Commander, etc.

WITH FULL DRESS.

54. Insignia worn otherwise than on ribbons on the breast.

(i) The insignia of the 1st class (Knight Grand Cross or Knight Grand Commander) are worn as follows —

(a) The broad ribbon over the right shoulder, the bow from which the badge is suspended resting on the left hip, immediately below the belt or sash. Only one ribbon is worn.

(b) Stars are worn on the left breast. When two stars are worn, that of the senior order is placed directly above the other. Three stars are worn in triangular formation, that of the senior order on top. Four stars are worn in diamond formation. Not more than four stars are worn at any one time.

(ii) The insignia of the 2nd Class (Knight Commander) are worn as follows :—

(a) The ribbon with the badge attached is worn round the neck inside and under the collar of the uniform coat so that the badge hangs outside about three-quarters of an inch below the collar. Where a Knight Commander is in possession of more than one ribbon and badge, the remainder will be worn one below the other, commencing about an inch below the senior badge, each suspended on about three inches of ribbon emerging from between the buttons of the tunic. A small eye is stitched inside the tunic to which the ribbon is fastened by a hook.

(b) Stars are worn on the left breast. The instructions in (i) (b) also apply to the stars of Knights Commander.

(iii) The insignia of the 3rd class (companion or commander) are ribbons and badges worn round the neck in the manner laid down at (ii) (a).

(iv) The badge of a companion of the Distinguished Service Order, or of an officer or member of the 4th or 5th class of an order, is worn on the left breast in the order assigned to it in para 63.

WITH MESS DRESS.

55. Miniature badges of orders, decorations and medals will be worn with mess dress on the left breast in one horizontal line, one inch below the point of the shoulder, suspended from a bar of which no part is to be seen. The length of the bar must vary with the number of miniatures, but in no case should it project beyond the lapel or shoulder seam of the jacket.

When the miniatures cannot, on account of their number, be suspended from the bar so as to be fully seen, they are to overlap.

(i) With mess dress, stars, ribbons and badges (except the ribbons and badges of the Order of Merit and of Companions of Honour) are not to be worn.

(ii) The Insignia of the Orders of the Garter, the Thistle and St. Patrick, are not worn in miniature.

(iv) Collar badges, when worn on the mess jacket, will be placed $\frac{3}{4}$ of an inch below the medals.

WITH SERVICE DRESS.

56. (i) His Majesty the King has been pleased to approve, as a purely temporary measure, of orders, decorations and medals being worn with service * dress at levees and at investitures at which levee dress is worn (when

* (All occasions when levee dress is worn during the hot weather in plain stations service dress, drill, khaki, will be worn with orders, decorations and medals) officers are not in possession of full dress), and also on the following occasions when service dress is worn as review order by officers and other ranks when actually parading with their units :—

- (a) Proclamation parades.
- (b) King's Birthday parades.
- (c) Guards of honour.
- (d) Church parades.
- (e) Funerals.

On these occasions, insignia and ribbons will be worn in accordance with the following instructions .—

Broad ribbons (Knight Grand Cross and Knight Grand Commander) will not be worn with service dress.

Stars of Orders.—Stars, not exceeding two in number, will be worn on the left side, in line, and immediately below the medals.

Badges of Orders worn round the neck.—Not more than two such badges will be worn. An officer in possession of one badge will wear it round the neck with the ribbon under the shirt collar and $\frac{1}{2}$ inch immediately below the top button-hole of the jacket, a small eye being stitched inside the coat to which the ribbon is fastened by a hook.

Other orders, decorations and medals—These will be worn in the prescribed order on the left breast. In cases where a decoration or medal has been awarded but not issued the ribbon will be worn in the place assigned to the decoration or medal. The length of such ribbon will be the same as that of the medals worn, the lower end being cut horizontally and not folded V shape

No alterations will be made to the existing regulations in respect of the wearing of orders, decorations and medals by officers who attend Levees and Investitures in full dress uniform, which are worn as described in para. 54.

Small ribbons of decorations and medals will be worn by other ranks when walking out in service dress uniform.

57. Wearing of ribbons without badges.—When ribbons, without the badges of orders, decorations or medals, are worn with service dress uniform, they will be half an inch in length, and they will be worn immediately above the left breast pocket of the jacket.

WITH EVENING DRESS.

58. The following are the occasions upon which orders, miniature decorations and medals are to be worn with evening dress :—

- (i) At all parties and dinners when any of the following members of the Royal Family are present :—
 Their Majesties—

(The word " Decorations " on the invitation card to be the intimation from the host that the entertainment is an official one)

(v) Nothing in the above shall affect in any way the practice of the knights of the Orders of the Garter, Thistle and St. Patrick, and members of the Order of Merit, of wearing their insignia in accordance with previous custom.

In evening dress one badge only is worn round the neck, and as a rule the senior badge is thus worn, unless a junior one should appear to be more appropriate to the occasion. The ribbon from which this badge is suspended is worn under the white tie, the badge hanging about an inch below. If an officer is in possession of more than one order worn round the neck, all badges are also worn in miniature on the lapel of the coat. If he possesses only one neck badge, it will be worn round the neck and not in miniature on the lapel of the coat.

WITH MORNING DRESS.

60. All members of the various orders of knighthood, and all persons who have been awarded decorations and medals may, should they wish to do so, wear their insignia, decorations and medals with morning dress on official occasions and at public functions. The ribbons of the orders, decorations and medals may be worn on all occasions at the discretion of the holder.

60(a). The method of wearing the insignia of orders, also decorations and medals on official occasions and at public functions with morning dress is as follows :—

regimental uniform, substantive rank of Brigadier-General and

75. The Royal Cypher and Crown takes the place of badges of rank on the shoulder cords or shoulder straps of the tunic, and the aiguillette on the right shoulder will be worn with the tunic on all occasions.

76. With mess dress and service dress, the Royal Cypher is placed below the Crown and above the stars on the shoulder straps. In the case of Aides-de-Camp holding the temporary rank of Brigadier-General or Major-General, the Royal Cypher is placed below the crossed sword and baton.

77. Aides-de-Camp to the King who are in possession of the uniform and horse furniture hitherto prescribed will continue to use it.

78. Honorary Physicians, Honorary Surgeons, and Honorary Chaplains to the King.—Officers holding the appointments of Honorary Physician, Honorary Surgeon and Honorary Chaplain to the King will wear the Royal Cypher.

The device will not be worn when the officers have ceased to hold the appointments.

79 The Royal Cypher will be worn or under :—

Honorary Physicians and Honorary Surgeons to the King.—The Royal Cypher and Crown will take the place of badges of rank on the shoulder cords or shoulder straps of the full dress tunic. With mess dress, undress and service dress, general officers will wear the Royal Cypher immediately below the crossed swords and baton. In the case of Colonels, the Royal Cypher will be placed immediately above two stars and below the crown.

Honorary Chaplains to the King.—The Royal Cypher will be worn in mess dress and service dress as described above.

Retention of Royal Cypher and Crown on shoulder straps by officers who vacate the appointment of Aide-de-Camp to the King.

80. An Aide-de-Camp after vacating the appointment, will retain the Royal Cypher and Crown on the shoulder straps of all uniform garments.

81. The Royal Cypher and Crown will be worn by ex-Aides-de-Camp as under:—

General Officers.—The Royal Cypher and Crown will be placed immediately below the crossed swords and baton. Should a General Officer, who is an ex-Aide-de-Camp, afterwards be appointed Aide-de-Camp General, he will wear the badge appertaining to his new appointment and will cease to wear the Royal Cypher and Crown of an ex-Aide-de-Camp.

Colonels.—The Royal Cypher and Crown will be placed immediately above the two stars, as is the case at present on the service dress jacket; the Crown, which is part of the Royal Cypher and Crown, will serve also as the Crown which is part of the Colonel's badge of rank.

82. Officers of the Indian Army who are appointed extra equerries to H. R. H. the Prince of Wales will wear the aiguillette, laid down for equerries in the Dress Regulations for the Army at the Viceregal Court in India, at all Courts elsewhere, and when they meet His Royal Highness.

The special aiguillette worn by Indian orderlies to His Majesty the King-Emperor shall be retained by them on their return to India but shall only be worn at Durbars, and at functions at which His Excellency the Viceroy may be present, on the Sovereign's birthday parade in India, and on the 1st January Proclamation parade.

The following is a description of this special aiguillette:—

Wire cord $\frac{1}{4}$ inch gold, with plait and cord loop in front; and same at back, the plaits ending in plain cord with gilt metal tags. The plaits and cords front and back are joined together by a short gold braid strap in which is worked a button-hole. The aiguillette is attached to the right shoulder of the garment by a button placed under the outer end of the shoulder cord or strap. The long cord is looped up on the top or front cord and the short and long plaits are fastened together, and a small gold braid loop is fixed thereon to attach to the top button of the garment on the side on which the aiguillette is worn. The arm is passed between the front plait and cord and the back or long plait and cord.
